JUSTICE FOR ALL? International Criminal Court Conference, 14-15 February 2012
EVENING WITH PLAYWRIGHT AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST EVE ENSLER, 12 February 2012

The Australian Human Rights Centre and the Faculties of Law and Arts and Social Sciences at the University of New South Wales are pleased to invite you to a major international conference on the International Criminal Court (ICC) at the University of New South Wales, Sydney from 14-15 February 2012.

Fulltime students are eligible to register at the discount rate of $300.

This conference will be of particular relevance to those with an interest in criminal law, international humanitarian law, gendered crimes, and human rights law.

The conference will mark the 10th anniversary of the ICC and discuss the work and impact of the ICC during its first decade. The President of the Court, Judge Sang-Hyun Song, the Registrar of the Court, Ms Silvana Arbia, Deputy Prosecutor, Ms Fatou Bensouda and Ambassador Christian Wenaweser, President of the ICC Assembly of States Parties will address the conference. In addition, a number of leading academics and practitioners in the field will participate in the conference.

The Conference will examine the role and success of the ICC in achieving gender justice and analyse the participation of the Asia Pacific region in the ICC regime. The Conference programme features both plenary sessions and a number of parallel sessions each day and is available on the conference website at http://www.justiceforall.edu.au .

In the lead-up to the Conference, award-winning American playwright, author and human rights advocate, Ms Eve Ensler will deliver the Australian Human Rights Centre Annual Lecture on Sunday, 12th February, 2012 at 5.30pm at the Sydney Theatre Company. Tickets will be available for purchase at http://www.sydneytheatre.com.au/ .

To register, students can fill out the attached registration form and email it, along with a scan of their student-card or other proof of full-time enrolment, to justiceforall@unsw.edu.au
